

Prodeo Academy Internship Application Information

We provide paid internships where students work one-on-one with struggling readers. We train our interns in a reading intervention program and they track student progress toward goals. Students are paid $10/hour and can work up to 10 hours per week. Morning hours are preferred, but our schedule can be flexible based on intern needs. Our interns are also able to do their field experience (especially the first one) in conjunction with the internship. Students must apply for this Internship.

To apply, please answer the following questions:
